SHIPPING INSTRUCTIONS

In order to render the exchange of communications all the more efficient, as well as to harmonize codes and costs, all suppliers are expected to ship incoming goods per the instructions contained herein.

Any exception or deviation must be properly authorized in writing by the direct buyer, whose name appears on the purchase order. Without such evidence, the sender could be charged back portion or total of the incurred costs.

It is mandatory that the purchase order number appear on all the waybills. Same day deliveries must be consolidated on the same waybill.
